Globe Inn,

YORK ST., NEAR THE DIAMOND,

GETTYSBURG, PA.—The undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known Hotel, the "Globe Inn," in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table will have the best the market can afford—his chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of wines and liquors. There is large stabling attached to the Hotel, which will be attended by attentive hostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public's patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large part of it. Remember, the "Globe Inn" is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square.

WHIP-PO-WILL.

BY MABEL ST. CLAIR.

I always loved the twilight hour,
And many times I've crept,
And, pushing back the the tangled vines
From which the dewdrops wept,
Stood almost breathless, with my hands
Clasped on the window sill,
To listen to that strangest bird,
Cry out its "whip-po-will."

I cannot tell you why it is
Such memories will awake;
Nor why this spell creeps o'er me
I have no power to break;
I only know its faintest note
My very pulse will thrill,
And happier days come back to me
At its strange "whip-po-will."

It was a night, long, long ago,
I cannot tell how long;
The future was before I know,
And heart and pulse beat strong;
She stood beside me, and our hands
Were clasped upon the sill;
And we bent our heads to listen
To the strange "whip-po-will."

I'm going to traverse distant lands,
To stand where Arne flows:
To tread proud Venice's princely halls;
And Switzer's Alpine snows;
And when I come you'll be my wife?
I felt my pulses thrill,
As that bird caught her low response
And echoed back "I will."

I stood by Arne's moonlit wave
And saw proud Venice's walls,
And saw the glowing sunset flood
Italia's towers and halls,
And then I came to claim her heart,
Put it was cold and still;
One mourner lingered by her grave—
That strange, strange "Whip-po-will!"

I stand alone, alone to-night—
And nature is asleep:
I look upon that tombstone white,
Then bow my head and weep:
No little hand is clasped in mine
Upon the window sill;
No sound this painful silence breaks,
Save that one "whip-po-will."

CHEAP BUILDINGS.

EDITOR OF COMPILER:—In glancing over a paper of recent date, my eye happily fell upon an article on the subject constructing cheap and comfortable buildings, coinciding with opinions and ideas entertained by me for some years—casting aside, as they do, all old fogy notions, the result of education or prejudice. The great want of comfortable accommodations in our town, (made memorable by hard fought battles in the late unhappy war,) demands that prompt means be taken to supply the needs of our increasing population, placing within the reach of almost every man, however humble, a little domicile of his own. The argument now made ues of for not improving in this particular is, that material and labor are too high. Monied men say they cannot be remunerated for their money so invested. This argument I think can be reached by submitting the following to the intelligent and thinking minds of your readers:

How to Build Cheap and Comfortable Dwellings.—Those who have plenty of money can purchase the brains of an architect to tell how to construct a house, if they have none of their own, but those who have but little money must plan their own houses, perhaps build them. The popular method of constructing wood houses, particularly cottages, has not been by any means the most economical that can be divised. From thirty to forty per cent. more lumber has been used than is necessary, and much labor expended that is wholly concealed when the house is completed, and altogether unnecessary. A small dwelling need not be constructed as we would build a warehouse, or a grain elevator. It is never subjected to any test of its strength, and wooden cottages never fall down so long as they have a good foundation and those little ordinary repairs which all houses must have to stand the ravages of time. No square timber and but few scantlings are required in a small cottage. Mortices and tenons are of no account—indeed they are a positive detriment, while braces are equally useless.

The studding of a house may as well be made of inch boards four inches wide, as of double that thickness. These studs will hold the nails of the sidings and the lath just as well as those two inches in thickness. Just as the floor joists may be of inch stuff, eight inches wide.—Having laid up the cellar walls of stone, and leveled them at the top, boards should be laid on this wall to form a sill. The bents of the frame may then be set up one after another, and stayed till the siding can be put on. These bents may be made on the floor-joists, studs, cross-joists for the ceiling, and rafters, all nailed together firmly with cut nails, while lying upon the ground. Every piece of siding nailed to this frame tends to make it firmer and stiffer, and so do the laths upon which the mortar is to be spread. The partitions made in like manner, well secured, also tend to stiffen the whole fabric. With here and there a good support in the cellar, such a house, when completed, would be just as desirable for all practical purposes as one of the same size containing nearly twice as much material, and it would certainly be just as warm. A cottage with five or six rooms may be speedily constructed on this principle at a much less cost than in the popular style of building. This is a substantial building compared with those constructed on leased lands about Chicago, and they are deemed very comfortable, and their strength and safety is not questioned. Some method must be devised to cheapen the cost of dwellings, and we know of none that commends itself so well as this that we have suggested.—Rural American

To make any further suggestions at present would occupy too much time space; but should the matter be agitated, I may again take it up. BUILDER.

A WORD FOR MULES.

We are glad to see that the use of mules for all kinds of hard, rough work is steadily gaining ground. These animals are not beautiful or musical, but they are useful and economical. They are fit for work younger than the horse, since they are put to service at three years old, though they do not reach their maturity until seven years of age. Their temper, health and usefulness depend very much on the manner of breaking them. The so-called stubbornness and obstinacy of this animal arises chiefly from the abuse he is wont to receive when young. He seldom if ever kicks or bites those who treat him kindly. But the fact is, that the club and whip and whip-handle and boot-toe are applied to him without mercy; and yet he is expected to be always as patient and gentle as a cow!

The mule will do more work, and require less grain, than a horse; he is less liable to disease, and recovers from sickness and injury quicker than a horse. He works better when old, and holds out longer. He seldom takes fright, or runs away. He does not like over-urging when drawing heavy loads, and he should never be driven very fast. In making up spans (those of 15 to 15½ hands high make most serviceable teams,) those of similar dispositions should be chosen and put together, so that they will work together pleasantly and with a will. The mule seems made for work—he thrives under it, and is better in spirits and temper than when idle.

BORERS AND TOMATOES.

Mr. H. J. Foster, of Quincy, Mass., writes the N. E. Farmer that he had an apple orchard which was badly infested by the borer. Some three years ago, while removing borers from his trees, he noticed that invariably there were no signs of their work to be discovered wherever a chance plant of the tomato had sprung up from seed in the soil or from manure. Acting on this discovery, he planted tomatoes extensively about his apple trees and quince bushes, and found them a complete protection from the assaults of the borer, as the beetle, which deposits the egg of this pest, will not go near a plant of this character.

MEASURING HAY.—The following method of ascertaining the amount of hay in a mow, we find recommended to those who may live at a distance from hay scales. Multiply the length, breadth and height together, and if the hay is somewhat settled, ten solid yards make a ton. Clover will take from ten to twelve solid yards per ton.

EDITING A PAPER.

Considering how many advisers of editors there are, it is strange there are so few good editors. Perhaps a careful investigation of the matter would show, however, that good editors are oftener spoiled by trying to follow too many advisers than by having too few. There is plenty of advice, which the receiver would do better to pocket than to practice. Most advisers, so far as our observation goes, regard much writing and good editing as nearly synonymous. There is no greater mistake, and none more fatal in the successful editing of a general newspaper. Benjamin Franklin has the credit of saying that "the best editor is scissors," by which he probably meant that the editor who recognizes the fact of there being in the world many good writers besides himself, and avails himself of the good things they have written, will make the most interesting and acceptable newspaper. Men who know most about making newspapers, do not estimate an editor's labors by the number of columns he writes, but by the general completeness and finish of his paper as a whole. The following paragraph, written by an Englishman of much experience, contains the gist of the whole matter:

"A good editor or competent newspaper conductor, is like a general or a poet—born, not made. Exercise and experience give facility, but the qualification is innate, or it is never manifested. On the London daily papers, all the great historians, novelists, poets, essayists, and writers of travels, have been tried, and nearly every one has failed. 'I can,' said the late editor of the London Times, 'find any number of men of genius to write for me, but very seldom one man of common sense.' Nearly all successful editors are of this description. A good editor seldom writes much for his paper; he reads, judges, selects, dictates, alters and combines; and after doing all this well, he has but little time for composition. To write for a paper is one thing—to edit a paper is another."

The following story is told of a Yankee captain and his mate. Whenever there was a plum pudding made, by the captain's orders all the plums were put into one place next to the captain, who after helping himself, passed it to the mate, who never found any plums in his part of it. Well, after this game had been played for some time, the mate prevailed on the steward to place the end which had no plumbs in next to the captain. The captain no sooner saw the pudding than he discovered he had the wrong end of it. Picking up the dish, and turning it in his hands, as if merely for examining the china, he said, "this dish cost me two shilling in Liverpool," and put it down again as though without design, with the plum end next to himself. "Is it possible?" said the mate, taking up the dish; "I shouldn't suppose it was worth more than a shilling," and, as if in perfect innocence, he put down the dish, with the plum end next to himself. The captain looked at the mate, the mate looked at the captain. The captain laughed, the mate laughed. "I tell you what, young one," said the captain, "you've found me out, so we'll just cut the pudding lengthwise this time, and have the plums fairly distributed hereafter."

The Williamsport Bulletin tells the following story:

"One of the curiosities of the season is that of numerous grasshoppers appearing on the grass where the snow has melted off. Whether this phenomenon is general, or only confined to particular localities, we are not able to state. Mr. H. S. Morse, who resides on Centre street, caged several and brought them to our office. They were as lively as in midsummer. The grass in his yards is filled with these summer visitants. Who has seen winter grasshoppers elsewhere?"

Radical Corruption.—In Pennsylvania the election of U. S. Senator is followed by a legislative committee to investigate grave accusations of corruption in the selection of the first representative officer of the government. In Kansas, two Senators have been chosen, and a like committee of investigation is the sequel. In Nevada a Senator was elected, and a committee is performing the same duty in that infant commonwealth. The Kansas legislature, sickened with the struggles of venal ambition, has passed a resolution in both branches asking Congress to provide for the election of United States Senators by the people.

The New York city authorities are about to stop all lotteries, gift enterprises, &c., whether conducted under secular or religious auspices.

WEBSTER'S PROPHESY.

The Herald pronounces the "prophesy" of Daniel Webster, which we published in our last, a "stupendous falsehood," and says that his (Webster's) "life-long services to his country ought at least to protect his memory from such base assaults." But yet, notwithstanding the Herald's denial, Mr. Webster did use the very language we quoted. Many years ago, when Mr. Webster was convinced that the "infernal fanatics and Abolitionists" would "bankrupt the country and deluge it in blood," if not arrested in their mad career, he proposed to

GETTYSBURG, PA.

Monday Morning, Feb. 25, 1867.

JURY BILL.

There is before the House at Harrisburg, a new Jury bill, providing for the election of two Jury Commissioners, in the same manner as Inspectors of Elections are now chosen, (one on a ticket,) by every county in the State. These Commissioners, with the Sheriff of the county, are to select the Jurors. To our view, the proposed change would only make additional expense, without any real benefit.

—On Wednesday, the Radicals of the House voted against taking the jurors from the white portion of the population alone, and thus squarely expressed themselves in favor of placing THE NEGRO IN THE JURY BOX! THINK OF THAT, WHITE MEN OF ADAMS COUNTY!

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS.

The usual spring elections will take place on Friday, the 15th of March.—Very much depends upon the election of the right kind men to fill the responsible positions of election officers. An intelligent and resolute man as Inspector will be able to prevent frauds and outrage, even if the majority of the board are against him. The presence of such a one will at least be a wholesome check on rascality, if it should be attempted. It is important that the Democracy should commence aright by paying especial attention to the coming township elections. Let the very best men of the party be nominated, and let a vigorous effort be made to elect them. Too many Democrats permit these elections to go by default. Let there be a full turn out in every township on the 15th day of March. Begin the work of the fall campaign then, and commence with a determination to succeed.

THE TIMES.

Within the past ten days business has somewhat revived. The prospect of a defeat or suspension of the impeachment scheme gives more confidence to capitalists, and if the people and press throughout the country were, with one voice, to demand a cessation of the revolutionary conduct of the Radicals, we might soon begin to look for a return of the good times of the past.

The masses are beginning to fully appreciate the effect of the Radical schemes, and, instead of applauding the most extreme sentiments, as heretofore, a vast majority strongly incline to a conservative course. Above all things, the people demand a restoration of the Union, and a return to a settled state of National affairs, and they will not be content with much longer delay. Let the politicians read the signs of the times, and take warning before it is too late.

☞Sherman's reconstruction bill has passed both Houses of Congress, and is now in the hands of the President. Not having been passed ten days before the end of the session, it will fall if the President merely retains it. Opinions vary as to his probable course. Some think he will hold it, others that he will squarely veto it, and a few others again that he will sign it. The bill, it seems to us, is only calculated to put off restoration. It seeks to compel the adoption of negro suffrage and the constitutional amendment by the South, and even if adopted, reserves to Congress the power to keep those States out of the Union for an indefinite period. There is nothing final in the measure, and therefore would result in no substantial good. The people demand a complete settlement, at once and forever, and ought to be satisfied with nothing less.

—A correspondent of the Ags says the President will probably send in a veto to-day.

☞The U. S. Senate has rejected the nominations of Hon. A. H. Coffroth, as Revenue Assessor, and Col. R. C. Swope, as Revenue Collector, for this district. These gentlemen have performed their official duties faithfully and efficiently, and there can be no other reason for their rejection than the fact that they agree with President Johnson in his Union-restoring policy—a policy which, if seconded by Congress, would bring permanent peace and prosperity to the country. Time, which makes all things even, must right the wrongs committed by the negro Radicals, some day.

☞Gen. Swift, Gen. Couch, Gen. Pratt, Gen. Eagen, Gen. Curtis, Col. Moe, Col. Langdon, Col. Wells, Col. Hunter, Col. Grierson, Col. Cummings, Col. Tally, and Col. Parkhurst—all brave officers of the Federal army—are among the scores of soldiers who have been rejected by the Rump Senate as civil appointees of the President. Patriotism and wounds have no effect with that contemptible cabal of fanatics, when coupled with opinions not in consonance with the negro heresies and disunion plans of the Radical leaders.

☞The Radicals oppose the setting apart of Railroad cars for the special accommodation of negroes. As such an arrangement would add greatly to the convenience and comfort of the negroes, we presume the Radicals object to it only because it would cut them off from the enjoyment of negro society when traveling. If this is what impels them to insist upon having all cars thrown upon to negroes, we can suggest a compromise that will suit all around. Let a car be set apart for negroes on every passenger train, and let ticket agents be required by law to sell tickets of admission to that particular car, not only to negroes, but to all whites men who may apply for them. This would give the Radicals a chance to ride with their colored brethren without compelling other people to do so too.

☞The impeachment of President Johnson is about given over by the Mongrels in Congress. We thought they were too cowardly to do a thing of the kind. They heard the muttering of a storm which they did not dare to arouse, and have abandoned their scheme, not from principle but from cowardice.

☞The Wabash River is reported to be higher than ever known before. On the Illinois side the flood has almost reached the tops of the houses, and it is reported that steamboats are running over portions of the prairies.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.

The plain and unvarnished report of Mr. Boyer, one of the committee sent to New Orleans to investigate the riot which occurred there some months ago, cannot fail to defeat the purpose of the majority of the committee to turn it merely to party account. The cause of the riot is found in a reckless partisanship that would hazard any outrage to promote its selfish ends. The encouragement the Conventionists received from Radicals in Congress emboldened them to the desperate attempt of invoking anarchy and bloodshed to acquire political power that could not be reached peaceably and lawfully. The parts enacted by the instigators and perpetrators of the crime are plainly exposed—the blood spilt is upon their heads. The effort to fix criminal responsibility upon the President is perfectly abortive, and all the quibbling distortion of Mr. Eliot and his co-laborer cannot pervert the simple facts so grossly as to plausibly impugn the conduct of the National Executive in the slightest. A revolution was designed and attempted, and the traitors who encouraged it at Washington and those who tried to consummate it at New Orleans, are the parties who will, finally, receive the execration they designed for others; human ingenuity cannot save them long, from the odium their wicked deeds merit.

—Mr. Boyer clearly shows that the riot was commenced by the negroes. Organized in gangs, and armed, they marched to the convention, cheering and yelling. The sight of a white policeman, albeit perfectly quiet, was enough for them, and without cause or provocation the riot began by a negro shooting a white man. On this point there is no question. Here is the testimony as cited from the record by Mr. Boyer:

Are you sure that the shot you saw fired by the negro was the first shot fired in the immediate neighborhood of the Mechanics' Institute?

Yes, sir; I am perfectly sure. I saw the negro, and I saw him fire. He had in his hands one of those large navy revolvers, and he aimed deliberately at the policeman that was carrying away the little newsboy, who was about fourteen years of age.

Do you know of any other facts connected with the proceedings of the 30th of July.

In the middle of the conflict I came out of the institute building and went through the streets without being molested in any way. Right at the door I saw several negroes, five or six; they were standing just inside of the building, and they held in their hands revolvers. I noticed that they were long navy revolvers. One of them had received a shot in the foot. I saw two bleeding. They were much exasperated, and I was almost afraid to go out when I opened the door and saw them. I asked them what they were doing. One of them said, "Well, they sent for us to guard the Convention, and they gave us these revolvers." One of them offered me his revolver to get him out of the position he was in. He told me he did not want his weapon.

Then followed the inevitable result. White blood revolted, as it does everywhere, at seeing negroes murdering white men, and a bloody riot ensued; and the negroes were, as they always under similar circumstances will be, the chief victims.

The character of the "loyal" leaders in New Orleans, who are now so high in favor with the Radicals at Washington, is thus truthfully summed up by Mr. Boyer. It is calculated to furnish food for reflection to all honest but misguided Republicans:

Judge Howell, the ostensible leader of the Conventionists, being the President of the Convention, had been a Confederate officeholder and as such had taken the oath of allegiance to the rebel government, the exact phraseology of which will be found on page 359 of the testimony.

Ex-Governor Michael Hahn, prominent leader and orator of the Conventionists, had also been, in the early days of the rebellion, a Confederate officeholder, and had taken a similar oath of allegiance. He had also officiated as orator in presenting Confederate flags to rebel regiments, when about to march against the Union armies.

Rufus King Cutler, perhaps the most influential of the leaders, had distinguished himself in equipping, at his own expense, a rebel company, known in the Confederate army as the "King Cutler Guards."

W. R. Fish, a member of the Convention, had been Secretary of the "Southern Rights Secret Association," a secession society organized during the Confederate rule, and exercising espionage over the movements of Union men. He was also one of the committee of extreme secessionists who voted for hanging Mr. Flanders, and helped to take him from his house and family and forced him beyond the lines on account of his Union sentiments.

J. Randall Terry, a member of the Convention, and "a moving man in the processions and demonstrations" of the conventionists, in March, 1862, at a review of Confederate troops in New Orleans, paraded in a rebel company, carrying a black flag with scull and cross bones, indicating no quarter to Union soldiers.

William Henry Walters, another member of the Convention, raised a rebel company and commanded it himself.

R. F. Dannoy, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms in the Convention, and candidate for delegate, volunteered in the rebel army, fought against the Union at Shiloh, and had paid money to thugs to knock down voters and drive them from the polls. He had also been a thug himself; had knocked down a judge in the street on his way to court, and was accused of murder.

These men were all prominent among the conventionists. They were political adventurers, known to have favored the Confederacy when it seemed strong, and deserted it when it became weak. Others of lesser note, who had like them, been rebels when rebellion seemed to prosper, were active in the Convention movement.

Discharged Their Duty.—The Joint Committee appointed to investigate the charges of corruption and bribery in the late Senatorial election, report that they found nothing. As that is just what they were appointed to find, it may be said that they have fully discharged their duty, and are entitled to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

☞A bill has passed the State Senate incorporating a new railroad company, called the South Mountain and Caledonia Railroad Company. The termini of the proposed road are New Cumberland, Cumberland county, and Caledonia Furnace, Franklin county.

☞A few Radicals having voted with the Democrats of the Maine Legislature, the bill repealing the law against the intermarriage of whites, blacks, mulattoes and Indians, was defeated. For "the good time coming," therefore, the Radical Maineacs will have to "wait a little longer."

LIBERTY IN TENNESSEE.

The following comes to us from good authority, and is a pungent satire on American republicanism as administered by the revolutionists: A firm in Nashville, one of the largest and most respectable mercantile houses in the West, paying annually many thousand dollars of taxes, and, doubtless, well known to most of our Market street merchants, has, including clerks, six persons employed in the concern besides the porter, who is a negro. The latter is now the only one of the whole concern who is allowed a vote under the present Brownlow Constitution.

The point of the joke is, that the negro was the bitterest rebel of all, and was an officer's servant in the late rebel army, and when fighting by his master's side, he was the third man over the ramparts of Fort Pillow, where he fell like an avenging thunderbolt upon the negroes—who so gallantly surrendered that stronghold.—Age.

☞The other day, in the Rump Senate, Wilson, of Massachusetts, found he could not secure a reduction of the duty on coal imported into New England, and thereupon hoped it would be voted down, saying that "it was not a Massachusetts tariff." In the estimation of the Yankee Radicals the Government was made to uphold New England, and when it does not do so, at the expense of the rest of the States, the Yankees go into rebellion. Having had the "whip hand" in the Government for the past six years, Massachusetts has been content, but so soon as the other States shall reassert their power, we will find the New England Radicals in the same attitude towards the Union and the flag as was assumed by them previous to the "slave-holders' rebellion."

☞How successfully the Radicals have managed our State affairs is plainly evidenced by the late act of the Legislature, authorizing a loan of twenty-three million dollars to take up the overdue bonds. The people were tickled, for the past few years, with a statement that the State indebtedness was rapidly passing away. Every message from Governor Curtin announced so many millions rubbed out by the "sinking fund." It appears, now, that the statement should have been that the Commonwealth is constantly sinking funds—which is the truth. The whole Radical party has been a sort of "rob Peter to pay Paul" series of expedients, which now necessitate the heavy loan just authorized, to keep the State credit up.—Patriot & Union.

☞Geary's pardon of Beiber, (the Berks county election officer who was convicted of misdemeanor in refusing the vote of a so-called deserter,) in advance of sentence, it is said had its effect in producing the recent Democratic triumph in Reading. The people began to think that, when convicted offenders were provided with pardons with which to rise up in court and flout the judge as he was upon the point of passing sentence, it was high time to turn over a new leaf, and stand by the courts rather than by the politicians. In this they certainly were right.

☞A terrible thing occurred in Boston—the "hub of the universe"—the other day. A hack driver refused to hire his carriage to "a colored lady of character, education and talent." Great excitement prevails, and the probability is that the fellow will share the fate of Roger Williams or the witches who used to infest that region.

☞The Harrisburg Radical organ says Col. Halpine, of the New York Citizen, "calls loudly for the impeachment of his Accidency." He does nothing of the kind; on the contrary, he says the overwhelming sentiment of the army is opposed to impeachment.

☞It is stated from a Radical source, that President Johnson has pronounced the various stories of his making overtures to Congress as too ridiculous to need contradiction.

LETTERS FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 15, 1867.

H. J. STAHLE, Esq.—My sojourn, occasionally, in Harrisburg, may induce me to drop you a few lines now and then. As your readers no doubt feel a deep interest in the doings of the Legislature, I will try to say a few words about them.

Up to within a few days, their whole time was occupied with bills of a private or local character—raising the salaries of their partisan favorites—abusing and traducing the Democrats—and lauding and aiding their particular friends, the negroes. Scarcely a bill could be brought up but the negro had to be mentioned in the same. It was nothing but negro—negro in the morning, negro at noon, and negro in the evening. But of late a change has taken place, not that they love the negro less, but that they got at loggerheads among themselves. The Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad bill is now under consideration in the Senate, and has created quite a flurry among the party. Senator Bigham, from Allegheny county, made open charges in his seat, that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company organized both branches of the Legislature—elected the Speakers, appointed the committees, governed their proceedings, and virtually ruled both branches of the Legislature. These were grave charges, and would have surprised everybody, did it not come from one of the leaders of the party, and had the accusations no reference to the Republican party. The charges brought the Speaker of the Senate to his feet, and several others, among whom was your [bogus] Senator. But Mr. Bigham would not be daunted, but reiterated the charges, and added proof upon proof towards establishing the fact. This difficulty would soon be healed were it not that the constituents of the western menibers are too deeply interested in the passage of this bill, to permit their members to come in with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or they would soon compromise and come in the traces of this great monopoly. It is not that this company has not money enough, nor that these worthy men would not be ready and willing to take it, but it is because their constituents would probably give their seats to others. The party was in the same dilemma at the election of United States Senator. But as old Simon had also money enough, and was willing to fork it over, and as their constituents cared very little about the result, that they all took a share of the booty, and the old Winnebago was elected United States Senator. But the present business is a horse of another color. Things can't be arranged quite so easily—they have to serve one or the other of their masters—the people or the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The Radicals have compromised as to the "Jury Bill." The bill is general, and operates alike over the whole State.

Mr. Stumbaugh, in place, presented to the chair, to-day, the bill for the payment of damages in your and four or five other counties, during the war.

Yours respectfully, SOJOURNER.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21, 1867.

FRIEND STAHLE:—Having been in the House, yesterday, when the bill was under consideration "for the better and more impartial selection of persons as Jurors in each of the counties of this Commonwealth," as it is styled, the "Black Republicans" of the House unmasked the whole principle of their party in relation to negro equality. Mr. Boyle, the Democratic member from Fayette county, moved to amend section second so as to read "white adult male taxable citizens," &c. To this vote the negro equality party had to stand up squarely and fairly, and, mark the result,—forty-eight voted against the amendment, and thirty-six for it—all the Republicans voting for the negroes to become Jurors and all the Democrats voting against such a monstrous measure. The bill went over before its final passage. There is no doubt of its final passage at an early day.

An Act compelling the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to re-build the Columbia bridge across the Susquehanna river, passed the Senate yesterday, and will no doubt pass the House also. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company made no particular resistance to the bill, having too many bigger acts to look after.

Your Damage Bill is before the House Committee of Ways and Means. How long it will sleep there time will tell. By a rule of the House, if I am not mistaken, a bill before a committee cannot be brought out, if the committee choose to retain it, unless by a two-thirds vote.

You know there are one hundred members in the House of Representatives, and thirty-three in the Senate, and no doubt you may think these two branches of one hundred and thirty-three constitute the entire law-making power of the State. But this is not the fact. In these days of progress—negro equality progress—there is another branch, much more numerously represented than either of the others, and probably larger than both combined. It is generally termed the "Third House," and the Capitol is perfectly jammed with them at times. I sincerely believe that this latter branch does the greater part of the legislation of the present session.

A joint resolution passed both branches to adjourn from Thursday until Tuesday next.

From all indications there will be an unusual number of appropriations, and heavy ones too, asked from the present Legislature. So I hear from members in common private conversations.

Yours, &c. SOJOURNER.

WHIPPING-IN.

In the Rump House, on the 16th, Radical Wentworth, of Illinois, submitted a preamble and resolutions, based upon the common rumor that—"certain members of the House have been holding private meetings with a view to corrupt bargain, pledging themselves to act adversely to the report of the Judiciary Committee on the question of impeachment if unfavorable to the President, and also to act adversely to certain other measures pending before the House to which they had been hitherto favorable, provided the President do certain things to which he has hitherto declared himself hostile and refrain from doing certain other things to which he has hitherto declared himself favorable"—and instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the matter in order to preserve the "power and independence" of the House. They were adopted by a vote of yeas 80, nays 41, but were subsequently reconsidered and referred to a select committee of three—Messrs. Wentworth, Ward and Glossbrenner.

By this arrangement those Radicals who have gone so far astray as to confer with the President in relation to a compromise, by dropping extreme measures on both sides, are likely to be summarily whipped back to their places. A Radical Rumper must not be a man, but a machine. As Wilson and Stevens pipe so must he dance. To act independently, of his own judgment, for the good of the people and Government, is a crime against "the party" and prejudicial to the "power and independence" of the House—that is, the Radical majority. African slavery was not more degrading than is the subserviency in which the small fry Radicals of the Rump are held by the domineering Stevens and his fellow Yankees.—Patriot & Union.

☞The report that Postmaster General Randall had resigned is contradicted. All the Cabinet officers, with the exception of Mr. Stanton, are asserted to be "in accord with the President on the great questions of the day."

☞A man in Cleveland, Ohio, recently made his own coffin, dressed himself for the grave, placed himself in the coffin, and there committed suicide by taking prussic acid.

SALE.—Mr. Noah F. Hersh desires us to state that the remainder of his property not destroyed by the fire, (farm stock and implements,) will be sold at public sale, at the late residence of Samuel Gilliland deceased, one mile northeast of Heidlersburg, on the day previously advertised—Tuesday, March 12th.

CHEAP BUILDINGS.—The attention of our readers, both in town and country, is directed to a communication on our first page, on the subject of cheap houses. The ideas thrown out strike us very favorably—indeed, they are "just the thing" at this particular time, when the need of dwellings is so generally felt, and the high price of material almost everywhere blocks up the way to a supply. Those concerned in getting up the Building Association should give the hints in the communication due consideration.

MORE SNOW.—The deepest snow of the winter fell last week, commencing about 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening and continuing "with variations" until 6 o'clock on Thursday evening—forty-six hours. The first fell into the mud and immediately melted, but that process presently stopped, and the snow commenced "piling up," until its depth on the level must have been over a foot. The sleighing, however, has been poor, and is now about "played out."

This winter will be noted hereafter as a season of great and frequent snows, as snow-storms have happened in very unusual places and to a very extraordinary extent. They have extended from Great Britain westward to the Pacific Ocean, and on our own continent as far south as Texas.

ORDINATION & INSTALLATION.—Rev. J. M. Clemens, late of Sheboygan Classis, was ordained and installed as Pastor of the Littlestown charge of the German Reformed Church, on Wednesday week, at Littlestown. Rev. Mr. Sechler, of Hanover, preached the sermon, Rev. Mr. Zieber, of the same place, conducted the ordination, and Rev. Mr. Deatrich, of Gettysburg, the installation services. The exercises were of a highly interesting character throughout.

☞Rev. D. M. Blackwelder, of the New Chester Lutheran charge, has resigned, and accepted the Petersburg charge. He has already removed to Petersburg.

☞The ladies and gentlemen of the Marsh Creek Persbyterian church have presented their pastor, Rev. J. R. Warner, with one hundred and fifty-four dollars.

☞Gen. Jacob G. Lauman, a native of York, and for several years a resident of Petersburg, this county, died at Burlington, Iowa, on the 9th inst. He commanded the Fourth Iowa Regiment of Infantry in the late war, and participated in the battles of Belmont, Fort Donalson and others, in one of which he was severely wounded in the thigh, and was promoted to the rank of Brigadier General for courage and conduct. Though he again went into service, he was soon disabled and had to retire.

☞Edward Ertter, baggage master on the Gettysburg Railroad, had his left hand so badly crushed as to lose the forefinger, whilst shifting cars at the Junction, week before last.

THE COLUMBIA BRIDGE.—The State Senate, on Wednesday, passed the bill to compel the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to rebuild the Columbia bridge within two years.

☞In the Senate, on Monday, McConaughy presented a petition from citizens of Gettysburg against the repeal of Sunday laws, and for a revision of the license laws to arrest intemperance.

☞The Gettysburg Brass Band, under Prof. Gundrum, treated the town to some charming music on Friday, the 22d.

☞Mr. John Bender, of Straban township, the other day, brought to town a hog weighing 504 pounds. Verily, hog stock is on the rise.

☞Capt. Jenifer, who was the occasion of much excitement at Hanover in April, 1861, died at Richmond week before last.

☞Those of our readers who have not already subscribed for their Papers and Magazines for this year, will find the Catalogue of Messrs. Blackwell & Co., of 82 Cedar st., New York, a useful guide. Their advertisement appears in our paper, and a copy of their catalogue may be seen at our office. We recommend this firm with confidence.

☞On our first page, we give, from the Carlisle Volunteer, a pointed article on "Webster's Prophecy." It effectually squelches all Radical lying on the subject.

WARE! WARE! WARE!—We are now prepared to sell Ware of every kind, wholesale and retail, on better terms than are offered in or out of the cities. We import our own Queensware, and buy our Glassware from the manufacturers. The expense of conducting our business is as one to ten compared with city wholesale dealers, and, our word for it, we will give those who buy from us a large share of the difference. Please call and examine our very large stock.

WM. BLAIR & SON,
"South End," Carlisle, Pa.
Feb. 18, 1867. 3t*

☞Judge Johnson, of the Erie county court, has ordered the discharge of the Democratic election officers, who had been arrested, on the complaint of Radicals, for receiving the votes of so-called deserters. Of course no judge having a decent respect for himself or the laws of the State could do otherwise.

☞The revenue tax bill was taken up in the lower House of Congress on Thursday, but it will require hard work to get it through before the adjournment.—There is a general disposition to exempt incomes to the amount of $1,000, instead of $600, as now,

☞The Democratic party was never possessed of more real elements of strength than it is now. There is every thing to unite us, and nothing to drive us asunder. We must win.

☞Lieut. Gov. Cox is to be inaugurated as Governor of Maryland, in place of Gov. Swann, elected to the U. S. Senate, to-morrow.

☞The annexed newspaper extract comes to us in a letter through the mail, with this additional information: "Felix Boller, who was shot at Ogden, Kansas, was a son of Jacob and Rebecca Boller, near Fairfield, Adams county, Pa., aged 31 years and 8 months. He leaves father and mother, a wife and four children, and a large circle of friends, to mourn his loss."

A Correction.—From a private letter from Ogden we learn that our report of the circumstances of the murder of Marshal Boller, of Ogden, by soldiers, was incorrect. The person that wrote the local notice obtained the particulars partly from common report and partly from the Junction Union. We did not have time to attend the examination and ascertain for ourselves. The correspondent says:

"Those six desperadoes came to Ogden under the influence of liquor. Three of them went to the house of Mr. Bostick with the intent to insult the women. The Serg. got off his horse and told the men if any one interfered to shoot them down. The Marshal heard the alarm and ran to the spot. He was not armed, and had but a small cane in his hand. He demanded peace and told them to go away; that they were at a private house, and that it was his duty to see that they went away. Poor fellow, while repeating those words he was shot through the heart by a rifle ball, and fell dead almost instantly. It was the first shot fired. One of the citizens of Ogden came in the front part of the house, and got inside as soon as the Marshal was shot. The soldiers were fired on and two of them slightly wounded. They went away threatening death to every one. The Marshal had no arms with him and never fired a shot."

IMPORTANT BOUNTY DECISION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The Secretary of War has decided that every bounty claimant shall be regarded as having served to the end of the war who enlisted for three years and was mustered out with his organization because the services of the latter were no longer required, and is therefore entitled to the additional bounty under the act of July 28, 1866. This is really a very important decision, as it admits the claims of a large class of soldiers for the additional bounty who would otherwise be debarred from the privileges of that act.

☞In his message of 1861 Abraham Lincoln said: "The right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to the balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend." In opposition to and violation of this declaration, the Radicals of the Rump have passed a bill to force negro suffrage upon the State of Louisiana, to force the ballot out of the hands of nine-tenths of the white voters, and to make a complete revolution in all the domestic institutions of that State, thereby destroying the perfection and endangering the endurance of the Republic. Let the old friends of Mr. Lincoln ponder these facts.

☞Mr. Williams, of Pennsylvania, during a recent debate in the House of Representatives, said "it was better that the rebel States should remain outside of the Union for a generation, than that they should come back now when they could form political alliances." That is the essence of Radicalism. The dominant party in Congress are opposed to bringing the Southern States back into the Union, on account of political considerations and for fear of losing some portion of their present power. How long will the people permit a party to control the destinies of the nation, which unblushingly ignores right and justice for mere selfish and partisan ends?

☞A recent telegram from Connecticut announced that P. T. Barnum, famous for his wooly horse and patent mermaid, had been nominated for Congress by the Radicals of the Fourth District of that State.

☞The last soldier of the American Revolution, Samuel Downing, of the State of New York, died week before last. His age is set down at 106 years.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. SCHENCK'S Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia Pa.

Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cents.

Thousands of Children die annually of Croup. Now, mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in the house, you need never fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 19 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throats, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Sprains, Old sores, and pains in the back and chest. No one once tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full Directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 56 Courtlandt Street, New York. Work and Actions.

Both sexes should bear in mind that in instances of indisposition where Pills are needed, due caution should be used in administering them. Most of those sent upon the surface of mankind, come under the formula of "Kill or cure," overpowered with calomel, jalap, aloes, gamboge, Epsom salts, and Harlem oil? But in Radway's Regulating Pills what a vast change! Vegetable in every form, anti-bilious in action, alterative and effective in cure. Their positive and active properties are unequaled. They trace out various diseases from their origin, overcome all periodical fevers, when taken according to directions, and place the system in good, healthy action. No better medicine in the world for the general run of ailments that flesh is heir to. Tried, and they are "not bad to take," being tasteless, having a coating of sweet gum, and are without smell. For Chronic Constipation, Stupor, Hysteria, General Debility, Loss of Memory, Vertigo, Asthma, Bilious Colic, Inflammation of the Bowels, Typhoid, and the various other fevers, nauseous in kind, Cholera, Cholera-Morbus, Piles, Rheumatism, &c., these Pills act and work so beneficially, so exact upon the Liver and the Digestive organs, as to make them pre-eminent over all other medicines.

Sold by Druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have fallen and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an ALTERATIVE MEDICINE to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

GRAIN AND GROCERIES.

Having purchased the extensive Warehouse, Cars, &c, heretofore owned by Samuel Herbst, we beg leave to inform the public that we are continuing the business at the old stand on the corner of Washington and Railroad streets, on a more extensive scale than heretofore.

We are paying the highest market price for Flour, Grain and all kinds of produce.

Flour and Feed, Salt, and all kinds of Groceries, kept constantly on hand and for sale, cheaper than they can be had anywhere else.

Plaster, and all kinds of fertilizers, constantly on hand, or furnished to order.

☞ A regular line of Freight Cars will leave our Warehouse every TUESDAY MORNING, and accommodation trains will be run as occasion may require. By this arrangement we are prepared to convey Freight at all times to and from Baltimore. All business of this kind entrusted to us, will be promptly attended to. Our cars run to the Warehouse of Stevenson & Sons, 165 North Howard street, Baltimore. Being determined to pay good prices, sell cheap and deal fairly, we invite everybody to give us a call.

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN

PIANOS AND CABINET ORGANS,

MELODEONS,

AND ALL KINDS OF

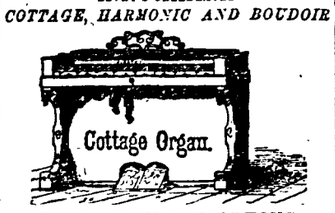
respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reiken & Schmidt, Chickering & Son, Bradbury, Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR



ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this Country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounce them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a lifetime of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

NEW FIRM,

AT THE OLD STAND. [ESTABLISHED IN 1817.]

I have associated with me, in business, my son, John F. McCreary, under the firm and style of D. McCreary & Son, and I desire to say to my old friends and the public generally that since the war, the manufacture of Saddles, Harness, Collars, &c., has been revived at the old established and well known stand on Baltimore street, one square south of the Court House, Gettysburg, Pa.

Having had an experience of 40 years in this establishment, I feel assured, that, with renewed attention to business, we can still further merit and receive a full share of public patronage. DAVID McCREARY.

With increased facilities for conducting our business, we are better prepared than ever to satisfy the wants of all those who may need anything in our line. We especially call the attention of Farmers and others to the superior quality of our

Plain or Quilted Seat Horn Saddles,	Side Leathers,
Plain or Quilted Seat no Horn,	Hames, all kinds, with or without fastenings
Plain or Quilted Seat Side Saddles,	Housings,
Plain or Fancy Saddle Cloths,	Scotch Collars (leather)
Wagon Saddles,	" " (tieking)
Riding Bridles, of all kinds, fair or black,	No Sewn Collars,
rounded or flat,	Best Welt Harness Collars,
Martingals,	Patent Leather Collars, stitched or unstitched
Carriage Harness, all styles, silver or black mounted,	Best Leather Wagon Whips, 4, 4½ and 5 feet long,

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hides, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

Price 25 Cents per Paper, or 5 Papers for $1.
